Yes...I received a voice mail late last night from Sean Hao that I've not yet responded to.

He was actually very polite, although somewhat confused, because the May and June drafts have different alignments.

Was this just bad timing because his FOIA request for the May draft came through at the same time the final draft dated June was released to the City of Honolulu?

Do we have a reason for not releasing the final draft to him?

Thanks.

Paul

Mahalo, Cathy and Nadeem. As you know, FTA released the redacted version of the May draft to the local press (Sean Hao, Honolulu Advertiser) so we had to preempt him from creating another negative story based on the outdated version. We made a press announcement stating the July draft validated our cost and schedule. Sean is now puzzled as he was not aware of the real final draft. One reporter (Pacific Business News) reported that we got the approval to enter PE but that's not our doing.
